Notes of Thanks

Expressing "Thanks" is inadequate for the work of 25-30 hardy servants on the very windy Sunday of May 1st. Representatives from five (5) Life Groups shoveled mulch, compost, and soil into six (6) beds in our church park. Soon vegetables and flowers will be growing in the Children's Garden and in a special garden that recognizes Carol Womack's and Barbara Coleman's thirty-plus (30+) years of service leading the Wednesday morning Ladies' Bible Class.

Thank You to all for your service, The Park Crew

Dear Church,

Thank you for your donation to the Bible Chair in memory of mother. She loved this church and was very sad when she reached the point that she couldn't attend. Thank you also for the lovely lunch before the funeral. It was delicious. Thank you Jane, Kristin and Kristi for serving us. We appreciate you! Love, Glen & Barbie

Dear Church Family, Thanks be to God, I have finished the chemo treatments. Words are hard to find to express my appreciation for the prayers and the many acts of kindness. I can always use the prayers. Thank you all so much. Sincerely, Anne Thomason
